About This Game

You find yourself at the threshold of an abandoned lab containing technology of unknown origins.

Welcome to The Energy Lab. You've found your way in, now find a way out.

A new VR short by TimeMachine, creators of Bathroom Break!

A HIGH-END INTERACTIVE EXPERIENCE

A typical game may add hours and hours of monotonous, repetitive grinding in hopes of satisfying the player's needs. This short interactive experience does not. We focused on the important elements that will allow you to "experience" at your own pace.

MYSTERY OF THE LAB

What is this place? Why are you here? Use your cunning wit to explore and discover a way out of the lab!

REAL LIFE MOVEMENT

A new style of VR movement allows you to explore with freedom in the most natural way available!

INTERACTABILITY

Interact with levers, buttons, magical gems, and more! Pick them up, put them down, it's all up to you!

We shouldn't say any more! It's time for you to experience The Energy Lab for yourself!
